What I believe in?

I believe that all human beings have a uniqueness, beauty and greatness within them.

What my dedication is to you?

I will guide, coach and empower you to access your unique authenticity for you to then express that with whoever you desire. Once you have got that my assistance is no longer needed :)

A Little About me?

I have coached and helped both Men and Women for nearly 11 years ranging from the ages of 18 - 77 and I absolutely love what I do.

I work privately, as well as with Hayley Quinn, Kezia Noble and Fluid Social.

I actually "fell" into coaching through just being on my own personal development journey like you might be on which started when I was 21. I did this as a "shy" lone wolf, solo, by myself which led me to meet someone who introduced me to the beginnings of coaching in this area of life. It has definitely been a fking journey! Haha

When I'm not coaching I'm up to www.ashleylloydshaw.com.

I look forward to potentially working with you and thanks for reading and considering either way.

A Few Testimonials

Antonio:

'I was coached by Ashley for a week...This guy does not know the thing you call "game", he knows life and knows you better than anyone else. He has the ability to let you forgive yourself for the past and unveil all the possibilities for the future.'

Bruce:

'Ashley challenges you to draw on your own authentic voice in approaching girls. He forces you to dig deep deep inside to bring out your true, unvarnished Self so you can present a transparent and raw "you" to another person, without social filters or caring what others think. For Daygame, you identify your ideal girl and then head out, where Ashley watches you like a hawk and always notices, when you notice an interesting girl, then he challenges you to approach her. So many times, I saw a girl and immediately, Ashley is like "go talk to her". It's extremely hard to screw up the courage, time and again to go into Set. It got so relentless; I forced myself to keep my eyes straight ahead without wandering for fear that Ashley would drive me into another set! When I was at my weakest, frustrated with myself, wanting to call it quits, Ashley pulled me aside for an inspirational talk that allowed me to see through all the meaningless social filters that stop us from doing what we want. Did the trick. Within minutes without prompting, I approached a gorgeous Brazilian model and had an amazing instant date. Ashley wraps his coaching in a soft velvet glove, but inside is the hard metal core of a disciplined drill sergeant. If you want results based on being your true authentic self, try Ashley out. You won't be disappointed.'

Chris:

'Just wanted to say thanks for all your help, I didn't get a chance to thank you in person. Hopefully I'll be back soon. You were one of the trainers that I related to most, I felt like we had a similar vibe. You helped me realise that I can really just be myself and say whatever I want to say. I will keep practicing until I get really good at this.'

Cosmopolitan Journalist (on Hayley Quinn's Going Renegade programme for women):

'We also did some interesting self-reflection with another trainer. I told him I was feeling pretty let-down by men in general, and he did what no one else had managed to up until that point; he got me to examine my own beliefs and think about rewriting them in a more positive way for myself. It was pretty powerful stuff.'

Nicky:

'Hey Ash! So cool of you sending this man..truly appreciate it bruh!!! Now that I've been through the whole course and went through all these coaches, I can truly and confidently say that you're the coach that actually changed my life man!! Sure I had fun with other coaches like xxx and xxx, but bruh the session and experience I had with you was just indescribable!!! Through the roof man, so from the bottom of my heart man, thank you and I'll honestly and genuinely miss you man!!! ✨🏆👉😊'

Doug:

'Hi Ashley, how are you? I finished the course yesterday. I had a great time and I feel that I learned a lot and most importantly my confidence has developed hugely. Your session was one of the best and most beneficial. I really like your approach and your mentality towards things. So I wanted to say thank you for that.'

Elysa:

'Btw I was thinking the other day how much you helped me over the past year.'

Richard:

'Hi Ashley, I want to thank you for the session last week. You gave me honest opinion and inspiring angles to practice. Yesterday I was heading home with the tram and I talked to these 4 girls, they said they have a party at their student home. I couldn't believe they picked me up! There was almost this situation that they wanted more.'

Robert:

'I loved Ashley the most.

xxx was awesome.

xxx female intuition is magnetic.

xxx and I are brothers.

Ash, you have made the most impact with me. I finished Dear Lover and will reread once I finish The Way Of The Superior Man. I may read some of Deida's other books. My inner peace has greatly improved, now after just making a mistake, I'm processing to love and forgive myself there by being at peace and having the confidence to try again. You gave me major change, eternally indebted, thx my friend.'

Richard:

'Hi Ashley, have a 1 step back Christmas and a 2 stops forward 2018. Your session was my breakthrough moment 😊'

Johnny:

'Positive vibes for new year asher!! 🙏🏻🙏🏻you're only going to be more awesome. Thanks for your time in 2017!! And see you in the future. Yaaas.'

Steve:

'Ashley, I just wanted to say a huge thank you to you. You are one of the most amazing human beings I have ever had the pleasure to meet. Thank you so much for all you gave me. Steve'

Bertrand:

'So inspired or not, there it is: thank you so much for the wisdom and the joy you shared with me during our time together. You brought your own distinct brick in the new improved version of myself that was being built during that week, and this was both very unique but also very consistent with everything else I have been learning the rest of the time. I often think of the girls you pushed me to go and meet on that day, as each of these encounters, besides being fun, taught me valuable lessons. But I think almost daily about some of the concepts that you explained to me - they resonated with me then, and I believe they have had a persistent influence on how I behave now (and as you're very much aware, I'm not talking just about the girls!).'

Joel:

'And I feel your sincerity when you communicate. Your energy across me is wind. You encourage, ignite, push, guide my energy into a soothing place. You encourage the "freedom" fire in the hearts of others.

It's an amazing skill to give this to others. Cheers to growth my friend. 🍷

John:

'Hey man, thanks for yesterday. I loved having you wing me, and got a lot from your insights. Good luck on the acting gigs. John'

Rudiger:

'Hi. just wanted to thank you... needed a bit to let all sink in. But did now 20 direct daytime approaches. Got 19 numbers. Got my first NO & your words about thinking helps not put too much into it. THANK YOU. :)

my thinking brain was/is my worst enemy'

Sotiris:

'Hey Ash. This is Sotiris, using my Cy number. Can't thank you enough for the mind-blowing coaching and support you've given me. You're a great guy and an inspiration. The course was amazing and I'm now beginning to grow. Look me up if you're in Cyprus. All the best.'

Sean:

'Hey Ashley, on my way home now and just wanted to express my gratitude for our time spent together and all the advice, guidance & value you shared with me. I really appreciate it and it was an honour to be coached by you. Hopefully our paths cross again in the future, but if not....have a frickin amazing life! 😊 ps just read over the notes above..thank you. Some real gold advice there man! You need to publish that and monetize!'
